TSS Solutions Announces Corporate Office Relocation and Expansion

MELBOURNE, Fla. – TSS Solutions, an Acorn Growth Company, announces its Corporate Office Relocation and Expansion.

TSS Solutions, a defense electronics engineering and manufacturing-focused company, announced today the relocation and expansion of its corporate headquarters in West Melbourne, FL.

The relocation and expansion house the Depot, Government, Radar, and SATCOM business units, Corporate Leadership Team, and Corporate Services.

"Expanding to a 55,000-square-foot office and engineer/production space is a substantial upgrade from the company's prior facilities, said Don DiFrisco, President and CEO. "This new facility has been specifically designed for our operations utilizing the latest LEAN concepts, and it will provide the necessary infrastructure allowing TSS to serve our ever-expanding global defense customer base more quickly and efficiently and to advance the overall operations and growth of the company."

TSS Solutions is a defense electronics engineering and manufacturing-focused company, continually innovating technology advancements and improvements to radar and SATCOM systems originally developed by some of the world's most powerful aerospace and defense brands. As owners of several radar systems, and providers of systems for lease, TSS Solutions is uniquely positioned to provide state-of-the-art technology capabilities at the optimal mix of the low cost of acquisition and leasing, fast delivery, service-life extension, and ongoing maintenance and operations support services where it is needed, when it is needed, globally. A full-service, in-house depot operation supports TSS Solutions' technical capabilities and engineering expertise. www.tsssolutions.com.
