MELBOURNE, Fla. - TSS Solutions, an Acorn Growth Company located in Melbourne, Fla., recently announced its President and CEO, Don DiFrisco, will serve on the board of directors for the Brevard County Habitat for Humanity beginning this year. In this role, DiFrisco will help guide the nonprofit's work to construct, rehabilitate, repair, and improve housing in Brevard County.

"I strongly believe in Habitat for Humanity's mission and am eager to work with the other esteemed members of the board to help achieve its goals and objectives in Brevard County," DiFrisco said. "For the past 20 years, I've been passionate about finding ways to get involved locally, and this position will give me the opportunity to share my expertise while contributing to the betterment of our community first-hand."

DiFrisco has more than 25 years of experience delivering exceptional financial and operational performance in high technology, manufacturing, big data, and other industries. At TSS, he is responsible for running all facets of the business and providing overall leadership to the company's technology development programs. "I encourage all TSS executives and employees to give of their time and share their experiences with those in our community, because finding ways to give back locally, whether by serving on boards or through volunteer work, allows our company to expand its reach and positively impact the areas where we live and work."

DiFrisco has served on multiple nonprofit boards, including the South Florida Crime Commission, Boy Scouts National Law Enforcement Exploring, as well as a member and SME presenter (entrepreneur) for the Florida Venture Forum board.
